NCAA Superstars
Women's College Basketball

BY RYAN WRIGHT

Careers are not made in the NCAA Tournament, they are solidified. Hometown heroes put on a national stage against the best of the best are given the opportunity to show what they are made of turning in awe inspiring moments etched into fans' minds forever. The march to the Final Four will give collectors superstars to hunt for as tournament action heats up.

PAIGE BUECKERS
SENIOR GUARD
UCONN

Big East Player and Freshman of the Year (2021), AP Player of the Year (2021), NCAA Tournament Final Four All-Tournament Team (2022), and Big East first team (2024) are a few of Bueckers' accomplishments in college. Grabbing rebounds, handing out assists, and swiping the ball from the opposition rounds out Bueckers' ability to put points on the board in a hurry.

OLIVIA MILES
JUNIOR GUARD
NOTRE DAME

Miles is a do it all player keeping statistics busy counting her points, rebounds, assists, and steals. The big jump in her game has come this season where she is lighting it up from behind the arc. On a fastbreak or in a halfcourt set, Miles is athletic and quick able to get to the basket at will.

After transferring from Stanford, the best bet on the court has been Betts. It is one thing to be 6-foot-7, it is another thing to maximize the advantage as Betts has done. Always getting great position in the low post, once she makes the pivot to the basket, count two more points for the Bruins. Double-double potential every game.

Men's or women's, arguably the most exciting player in college basketball. Watkins' game draws comparisons to NBA Hall of Famer Isiah Thomas (Pistons). As a freshman, Watkins set USC's record books with 14 30-point games. When the 2023-24 season was over, she set the NCAA all-time record by a freshman with 920 points. Watkins is all over the court on both ends of the floor and can create her own shot with her quickness and ball handling skills – on the fastbreak, midrange, or from downtown, Watkins has that shot in her arsenal.

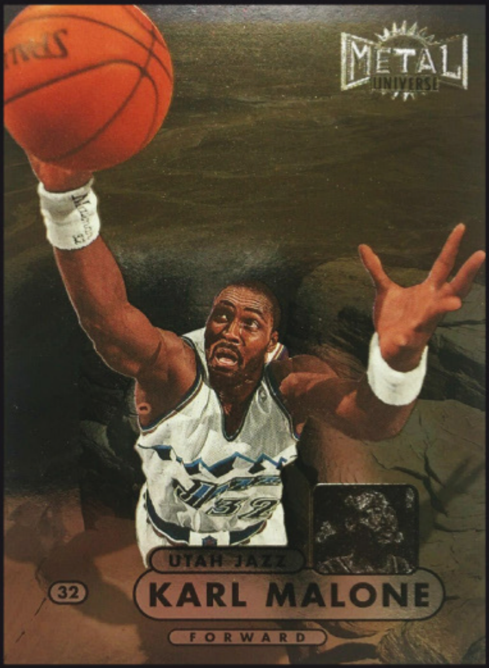
All-Time Top Undersized NBA Glass Cleaners

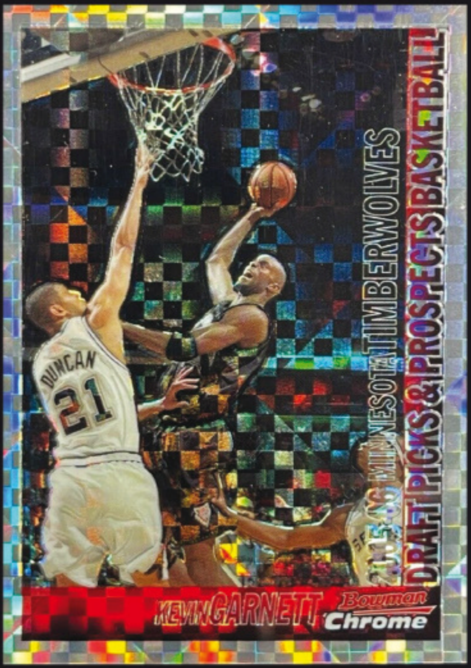
By Ryan Wright

The biggest and tallest players on the court, centers have ruled the NBA paint since 1949. The great ones limit access to the rim altering and blocking shots, and clean up the misses on both ends of the floor. But among the trees there have been undersized go-getters making a name for themselves as leading rebounders bringing something extra to their respective squads; some of those players even get lost in the crowd off the court with fans forgetting just how great they were.

As basketball grew in popularity, the 6-foot, 10-inch, or smaller, centers like George Mikan ended up being pushed over to power forward making way for the new breed of 7-footers. Wilt Chamberlin (23,924), Bill Russell (21,620), and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar (17,440) are the all-time kings of the glass. But who are the top undersized all-time NBA rebounders that did not play center?



1997-98 Metal Universe Championship Karl Malone #88 Utah Jazz



2004-05 Bowman Chrome Draft Picks X-Fractor Refractor Kevin Garnett #110 /150

Karl Malone: 6-9, 259, PF, Utah Jazz (1985-2003) and Los Angeles Lakers (2003-04)

The Mailman delivered in more ways that one on his way to two NBA MVP honors. Malone retired as the game's second all-time leading scorer (36,928) and sixth all-time in rebounds (14,968) later to be passed by LeBron James and Tim Duncan respectively. An oddity in more ways than one, Malone never led the league in rebounding, he was just as consistent as it gets averaging 10.1 rebounds per game for his career.

Kevin Garnett: 6-11, 240, PF, Minnesota Timberwolves (1995-07), Boston Celtics (2007-13), Brooklyn Nets (2013-15), and Minnesota Timberwolves (2015-16).

The list of accolades for Garnett are long and well deserved. Among being selected league MVP in 2004 and winning an NBA Championship in 2008, Garnett was a four-time league leader on the glass (2004-07). Through an eight-year span (1999-07), if the ball bounced off the rim, Garnett was coming down with it. Garnett averaged 12 or more rebounds per game from 2001-02 season through 2006-07. The Hall of Famer is currently ninth all-time on the rebound list and eighth all-time in scoring (30,045).

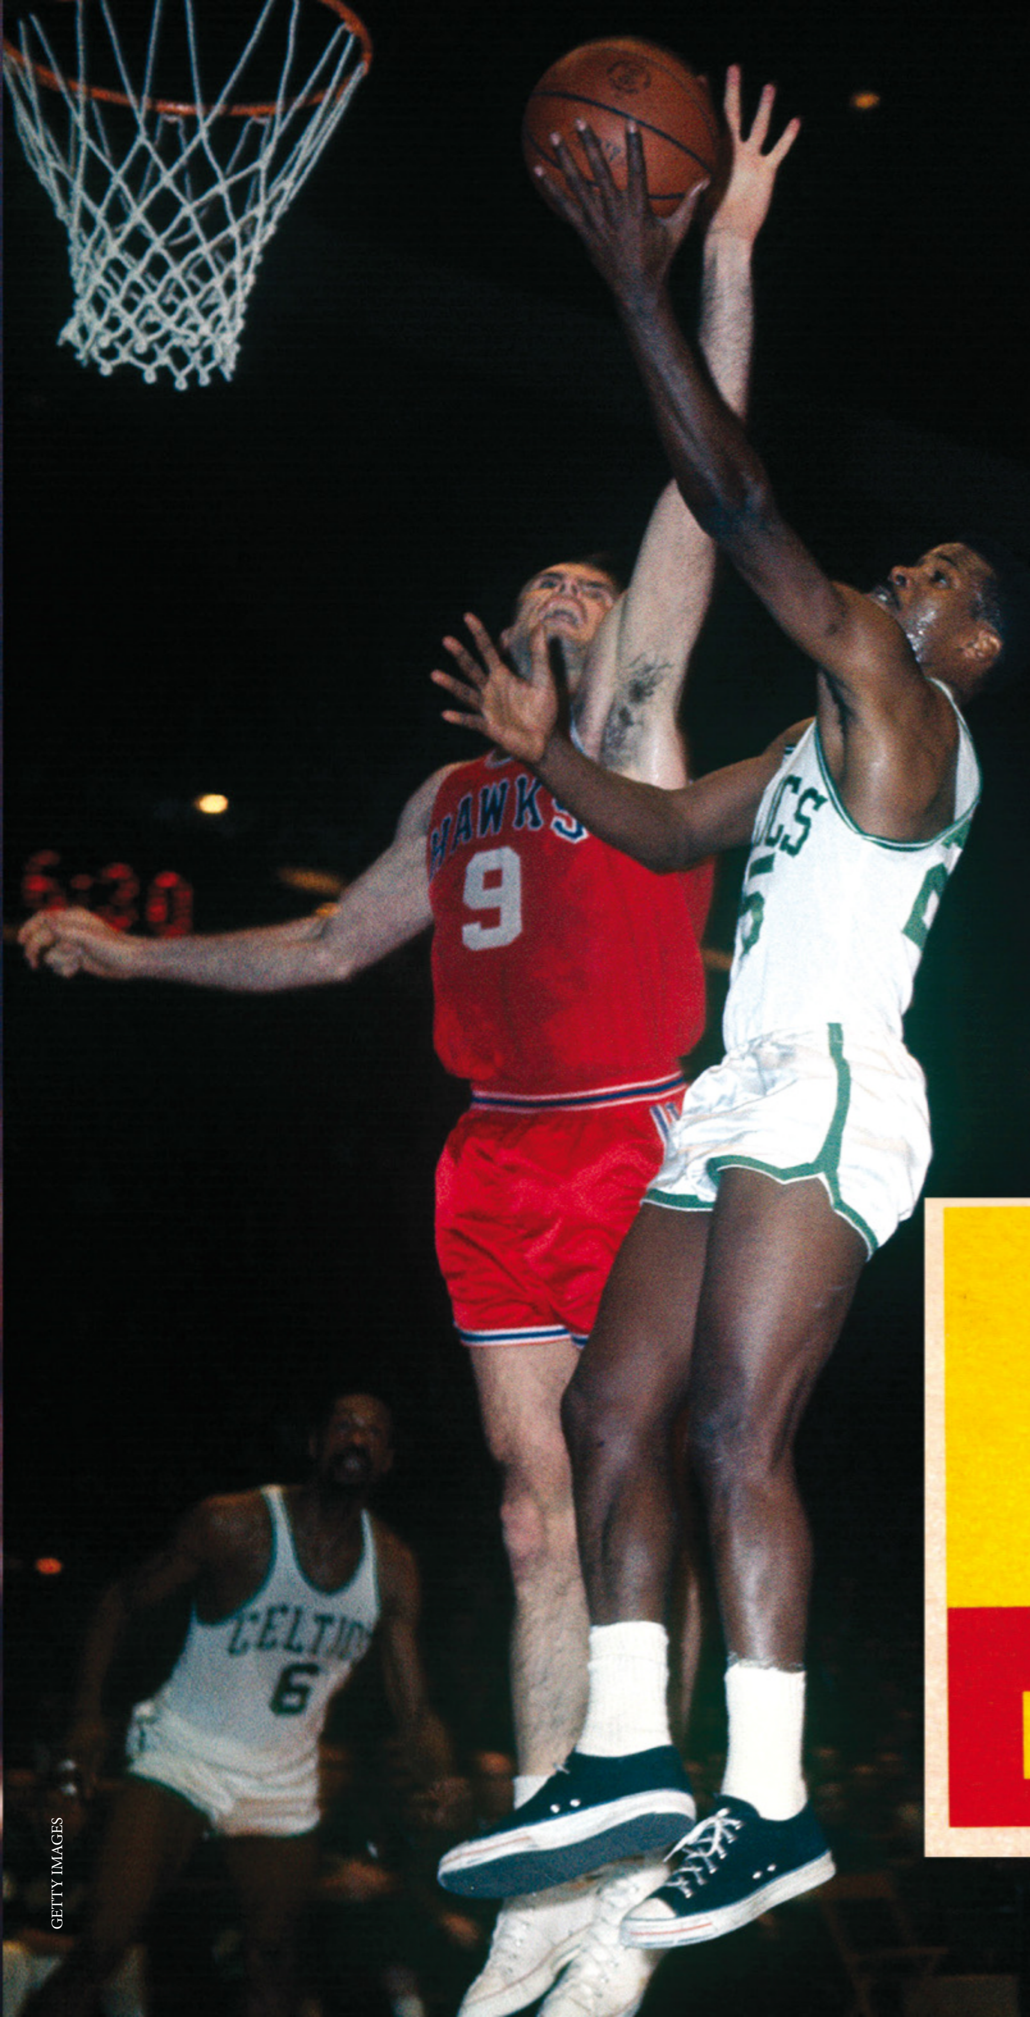
Jerry Lucas: 6-8, 230, PF, Cincinnati Royals (1963-69), San Francisco Warriors (1969-71) and New York Knicks (1971-74).

A reluctant professional player even after being a three-time All-American at Ohio State (1960-62), all Lucas did was go on to have a Hall of Fame NBA career. While Chamberlain holds the single-game record for rebounds (55), Lucas has the honors at forward with 40. From 1964 through the 1968-69 season, Lucas averaged 18 or more rebounds per game with a single-season career best 21.1 in the 1965-66 campaign. In a career short but today's standards (11 years), Lucas still managed 12,942 toral rebounds. Lucas was a first ballot Hall of Fame inductee going in with Jerry West and Oscar Robertson.



GETTY IMAGES

Bob Pettit: 6-9, 205, PF, Milwaukee/St. Louis Hawks (1954-65).

LSU had Pettit at center during his college days, but the Hawks saw a better professional fit at forward. The moved worked for Pettit earning NBA Rookie of the Year in 1955. A two-time league MVP (1956, 1959) and an All-Star in each of his 11 seasons, Pettit was the first player to surpass 20,000 career points. At the time of his retirement, he was second in NBA history with 12,849 rebounds. Pettit's 16.2 rebound per game average for a career is third best behind Wilt Chamberlain and Bill Russell. Because of players like Maurice Stokes, Russell and Chamberlain, Pettit led the NBA in rebounds (16.2) just once for a season (1955-56) posting a career-best 20.3 per game in the 1960-61 season.

Buck Williams: 6-8, 215, PF, New Jersey Nets (1981-89), Portland Trailblazers (1989-96), and New York Knicks (1996-98).

A double-double machine for the first seven years of his career, Williams was a three-time All-Star (1982-83, 1986) while with the Nets. Once traded to the Trailblazers, Williams would take on a different role with the now loaded Portland team earning Defensive First Team honors in 1990 and '91. Playing in 1,307 regular season games, Williams averaged 10.0 rebounds and 12.8 points per game. Williams pulled down 13,017 rebounds during his NBA career.

GETTY IMAGES

Charles Barkley: 6-6, 252, SF, Philadelphia 76ers (1984-92), Phoenix Suns (1992-96), and Houston Rockets (1996-2000).

One does not acquire the nickname "the Round Mound of Rebound" without merit. One of the NBA's all-time greats, Barkley out hustled the likes of Hakeem Olajuwon, Patrick Ewing, and Moses Malone to lead the league in rebounds (14.6) during the 1986-87 season, a feat Shaquille O'Neal never accomplished. Sir Charles is 19th all-time on the rebounders list (12,205). Through his 16-year career, Barkley averaged 11.7 boards per game and 22.1 points. The only year Barkley did not grab double-digit rebounds in a season was during his rookie campaign.

Luka Dončić Trade Heard Around the

Once in the U.S., it did not take long for Luka Dončić to assert is dominance in the NBA. The third selection overall in the 2018 NBA Draft by the Atlanta Hawks, Dončić earned NBA Rookie of the Year in 2019 with the Dallas after a trade (Trae Young and draft pick) giving hobby enthusiasts a player to collect. Dončić did not disappoint with the Dallas Mavericks being selected as a five-time All-NBA first team player (2020-24), and once his rights were traded to the Los Angeles Lakers on Feb. 2, 2025, renewed enthusiasm for Dončić cards was found.

Taking both high-end and low-end cards into account, before Dončić was traded the average price for his cards was $95. The week after his trade to LA, there was a 75 percent spike in value raising the average to $166 per card. Dealers and collectors were busy the week after the trade, secondary markets saw an increase of 249 percent in Dončić card sales.

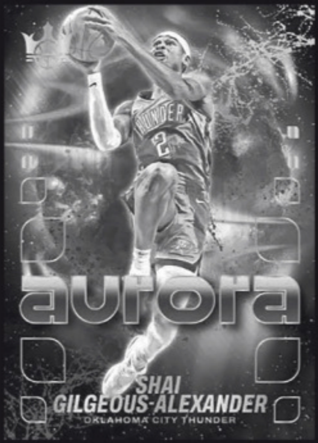
ROOKIE JUMBO SWATCHES



2024-25 Panini Court Kings Basketball opts for art as a focal point. Colors and styles collide at all levels of the checklist including base, its many inserts, autographs and memorabilia cards.

Boxes come in two main configurations. Hobby is where the hits are concentrated with both an autograph and memorabilia card. International blasters return, offering more inserts including exclusive Acetate Rookies.

The start of the base set highlights top veteran players. Parallels come in several levels including:

- Canvas
- Red and Blue
- Ruby – /149
- Pink – /99
- Amber – /75
- Violet – /49
- Sapphire – /25
- Gold – /10
- Masterpiece – 1/1

On top of these are some additional blaster-exclusives:

- Artist Proof
- Burgundy – /125
- Jade – /25
- Obsidian – /8

One of the things that makes Court Kings distinct is its approach to rookies. They come in five variations, each with a different design and rarity but the same group of players. Rookies I are the most common at two per hobby box. Rookies II, III, IV and scarce Rookies 0 combine to land one per hobby box.

None of these have standard parallels outside of Rookies I and IV. These are a part of the Acetate Rookies that are two per blaster.

Autograph themes include Brush Strokes, Fresh Paint, Heir Apparent, Impressionist Ink and Legacy Portrait Signatures. Amber parallels for these are only in hobby while blasters have Jade and Pink.

The 2024-25 Panini Court Kings Basketball checklist has a handful of memorabilia sets as well: Art Nouveau, Artistic Endeavors, Debut Showcase Memorabilia, and new Rookie Jumbo Swatches.

As Court Kings has evolved, it has expanded its lineup of standard inserts.

For those looking for short print chase sets, hobby has Aurora and Paint by Numbers. This is also where collectors will find SSP La Cinque Piu Belle cards.

In blasters, Blank Slate is tough.

First Steps focuses on footwear.

Among the product's other blaster inserts are Artistry in Motion, Double Exposure, Dressed to Impress, and Modern Strokes.
